Look at this object. What ideas does it give you for writing a story?

When you are looking at a picture, what question words could you use to help get ideas for your writing?

Tell your teacher.

Use the story opener as a start for your own story. Change two details to make your own version.

Late at night, a naughty girl crept into the kitchen. She wanted to eat some of the trifle left over from dinner. As she opened the fridge a mysterious voice asked, "What are you doing up?" The voice did not come from behind her but from inside the fridge. Who could it belong to?

Act out the ending of your story with a partner.
