	You can draw it like a tree with branches or you could use any shapes you like. How far back can you go? Google family trees and look at images you will see loads of ways you can represent your family.	https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/topics/zf2f9j6/articles/z3c6tfr#zqkpn39	paper, lego, play dough, anything you want.	you find out about the human body? One of my favourites is that you are taller in the morning compared to at night. Try this: Measure yourself in the morning, then again at night. You're going to be taller in the morning because of how the cartilage in your bones compresses during the day. Thanks a lot, gravity!	different countries? Why are there different houses in different countries? What makes them special to that country? Why wouldn't some houses be in certain countries?
