

Rights for Women - Then and Now

Sort the sentences about women into what was thought before the war and what is thought today.

 Before the War 	 Now

Rights for Women - Then and Now

Women are not as intelligent as men.	Every young girl has as much right to go school as every young boy.
Women are equal to men.	A woman's place is in the home.
Women should be paid the same as men for doing the same job.	It isn't natural for women to be interested in politics.
Women are too emotional to make political decisions.	A woman can be just as good a doctor or lawyer as a man.
Votes for women are a waste of time.	Women have as much right to vote for their leader as men do.
A university education should be a choice for women as well as men.	Women are represented by their husbands.