

We are Authors!

For the next two days you are going to publish your Beast description in your best handwriting.

WALT: Can I write a description?

Success Criteria:

Have I...

- + used some capital letters and full stops?
- + consistently used capital letters and full stops?
- + used a range of punctuation accurately?

Grammar Detective time

Paired: Fix the mistakes in these sentences. We will also do this together on our daily video

The lonely beast is a Friendly character.

He has, brown, curly, hair and green, beady eyes.

The Lonely Beast looks frightening But all he wants is some friends.

Preparation

Look back at your work over the past 2 days and remind yourself of your beast description – use actions to help you.

Main Task: Write your full description in your best ever hand writing. Remember to think carefully about your punctuation.

When you have finished...

Read through your work from start to finish and check the following things:

1. Does it make sense?
2. Have I remembered all of my capital letters?
3. Have I used full stops?
4. Are my commas in the right place?

Send your work to Mrs Simpson via Dojo and then please keep it safe.
