

Today we are starting a new book!

We are going to create questions about the book based on one of the pictures.

WALT: respond to a picture from a book.

Success Criteria:

Have I...

- + Asked and answered questions about a character with support?
- + Asked appropriate questions and given appropriate answers?
- + Asked and answered questions using my knowledge and understanding of the book?

Hello, I am Traction Man
What questions do you have about me and my story?

What words could you start your sentence with when asking a question?

What punctuation should you use when asking a question?

Why? What? Where?
Who? How? When?

WALT: Respond to a picture from a book

Monday 4th January 2021

WALT: respond to a picture from a book.

Question 1: _____

Answer: _____

Question 2: _____

Answer: _____

Question 3: _____

Answer: _____

Question 4: _____

Answer: _____

WALT: Respond to a picture from a book

Question 1: Who is Traction Man?

Why? What? Where?
Who? How? When?

Question 1: Who is Traction Man?

Answer:

Now listen to some of the story.

Does what I have read so far answer any of your questions?
Write your answers underneath your questions.

Write your answers to you questions based on what you have listen to and read today.

Question 1: Who is Traction Man?

Answer: Traction Man is a toy who goes on lots of missions.

Question 1: Who is Traction Man?

Answer: Traction Man is a hero because he saves the farm animals and they say 'Hooray for Traction Man'.