

Today we are going to combine all of our learning over the past couple of days to write a description of Traction Man.

WALT: write a description of Traction Man.

Success Criteria:

Have I...

- + used capital letters and full stops with support?
- + used capital letters and full stops consistently?
- + used a range of punctuation consistently?

What can we describe about Traction Man?

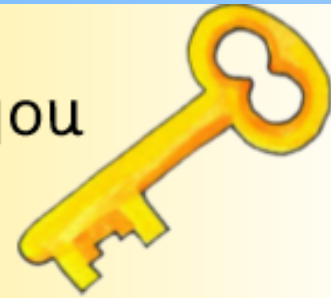

*Remember to look at your work from Tuesday and Wednesday.

WAGOLL:

Traction Man is a brave, strong man. He is very tall and he has dark brown hair. Also, he can move as fast as a cheetah. He likes to wear all different types of clothes including colourful trousers, camouflage vests and rocket boots. Could you imagine wearing rocket boots? One of his favourite gadgets is his handy rope because he can use it to help save others. When Traction Man goes on a mission, he often takes his super pet Scrubbing Brush. They work together so they can defeat the Evil Pillows and Poisonous Dishcloth. How heroic they are!

What key punctuation must you use when you write?

What is wrong with the grammar in this writing?

Here is traction man and he is ready to go on an adventure he is wearing his tough combat boots and has his handy rope beside him.
how will he use the rope today

Challenge: Can you use commas in a list?

Traction Man likes to wear colourful trousers, wrist bands, rocket boots and camouflage vests.

Here are some sentence starters to help:

Traction Man likes...

He wears...

He has...

His favourite thing to do is...

He enjoys...

His friend is...

Plenary:

Share your description with someone at home.

Are you missing any punctuation?

Can you improve your work in any way?

Please send your work to Mrs Simpson on Dojo.